ESPORTS IN SCHOOLS

Esports should become part of the school curriculum according to students...

50%
Half of UK school students would like to see more technology-related subjects added to the school curriculum to improve their career prospects

43%
think the current school curriculum is 'outdated' and does not offer the tools needed to succeed in a modern career 41%
have gained new interests from esports, such as content creation, coding and podcasting

40%
believed it gave a chance to those who aren't traditionally as academic as others

Developing skills

Top skills improved through esports:

- ICT, digital literacy
- Collaborative skills
- Communication skills

56%
think a qualification in esports alongside others would improve their chances of getting into university

53%
of students thought esports would be as useful a qualification as a core subject such as maths and English

45%
believing so because it's relevant to several higher education subjects

intel. D≪LLTechnologies