How are Savings Calculated?

While there are numerous ways to calculate savings, our reporting is informed and validated by third-party experts and documented in alignment with ISO 14040/44 guidelines.

Metrics that Matter

Responsibly retire your IT equipment using Dell's Asset Recovery Services and better understand your avoided impacts.

Avoid CO₂ emissions

Avoid Energy Consumption

Divert Waste from Landfills

Imagine this:

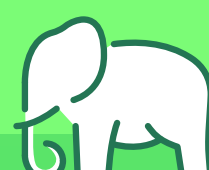

A simple refresh, where just one company retires 27,000 assets across their IT environment using Dell's Asset Recovery Services could amount to avoiding the equivalence of:

the annual emissions of 156
fossil fuel vehicles

the annual energy consumption of 250 households

the weight of
adult elephants

Now imagine the impact we can make at scale, together - across the world!

A Circular Economy:

Advancing Sustainability by Minimizing Waste

We are committed to designing solutions and products that can help us reduce our overall environmental impact – for ourselves and our customers – as we all work toward net zero goals. Adopting a circular strategy by reusing products, parts and materials helps us decrease reliance on new materials, easing the pressure off our environment.
